HOW TO RECLAIM YOUR LIFE

A guide to managing stress, anxiety and building confidence

Saturday May 26, 8am-4pm

Town Hall Education Room

The course is designed to help individuals understand the neurological explanation behind anxiety and what they can do to identify and choose in the moments where stress hits them. They also learn how to identify which areas of their lives they struggle with the most and begin working through each belief, one at a time, to understand their personal motive behind it and how it might affect other areas.

Cost: Individual $120.00+GST or book with a friend $200.00+GST

Please visit www.redcliff.ca to book this course online

This service is subsidized by the Town of Redcliff and is available to you at a cost of $6.50 per meal (*subject to change). Fees are paid at the Redcliff Town Office on a monthly basis.

Call 403-5483232 for information or pick up an application.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

There are many Volunteer opportunities for all ages in Redcliff! Please contact Community Services at 403-548-3232 for more information.

Other Community Information

Redcliff Scout and Guide Building Association

We wish to thank the Scouts and Guides and Families along with our Directors for a very successful Spring Cleanup held April 21. We had nearly 30 in attendance.

The viability of the Redcliff Baden Powell Centre would not be possible without the great support of many volunteers.

Redcliff scholarships for advanced education

Two scholarships, each for $5,000, are available to successful applicants who have been residents of Redcliff for at least the full year of Grade 12. Awards are for tuition at a university, college or technical institute. Criteria include preference for first year post-secondary students, financial need, leadership and academic merit.

Application forms are available through student counsellors at Eagle Butte High School or any of the three Medicine Hat senior high schools. Application deadline is May 31, 2018.

The scholarships are possible thanks to two endowed funds established and sustained by Redcliff organizations and present and past Redcliff citizens. For further information call 403-526-0548.
